Muthoot Finance Set's Up Baby Feeding Center in for Sir CV Raman General Hospital in Bangalore

Muthoot Finance in association with Child Help Foundation - a non-profit organization has set up a baby feeding center for nursing mothers in Sir

CV Raman General Hospital at Indiranagar, Bangalore. The hospital is strategically located at Indiranagar, registering an average daily footfall of 1000 visitors including patients and bystanders. Shri. George Muthoot Alexander - Deputy Managing Director, The Muthoot Group and Dr. Radhakrishnan - Superintendent, Sir CV Raman Government Hospital inaugurated the Baby Feeding Center in a ribbon cutting ceremony. The CSR initiative will primarily benefit the lactating mothers visiting the hospital for consultation, the workforce and visitors of the hospital. A modern day mother, in the midst of her office hustles and family commitments, finds it hard to fulfil her newfound roles and responsibilities as a mother. Breastfeeding is an important responsibility and commitment she holds as a mother. Human milk not only has nutritional and protective effects on the baby, but also it has a tremendous impact on the mental, motor and behavioural development of the kid. The breastfeeding center at Sir CV Raman General Hospital will provide the much needed space and time for the holistic development of a mother and child.
